WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 9 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the Council of a first nation may make laws respecting the financial administration of the first nation; and

B. The Council of Sipekne'katik considers it to be in the best interests of the First Nation to make a law for such purposes; and

C. The Council of Sipekne'katik wishes to repeal and replace the Sipekne'katik Financial Administration Law, 2017 (as amended by BCR in 2018).

NOW THEREFORE the Council of Sipekne'katik enacts as follows:

PART I - Citation

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, words and expressions used in this Law have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

(a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

(b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;

(c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expression “must” is to be construed as imperative, and the expression “may” is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Calculation of Time

4. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

5.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

6. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

7.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies;
- (b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance Advisory Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies and Procedures

8.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies and procedures relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are inconsistent with this Law, the Act, or GAAP – except as permitted in subsection 55(2) of this Law.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must ensure that all procedures made under this Law are

- (a) consistent with, and made under the authority of, a policy approved by the Council, and
- (b) approved by the Council or the director of administration.

(6) The Council must document all First Nation policies and procedures referred to in this Law and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

9.(1) In this section,

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the executive finance officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each council member whether such amounts are paid to the council member while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance Advisory Committee

Interpretation

10. In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance Advisory Committee.

Committee Established

11.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee. For greater clarity, simply being an elected member of Council does not cause an individual not to be independent.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent,

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent, and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a council member, and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be council members.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than thirty-six (36) consecutive months.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee, or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

12. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice-chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a council member.

(2) If Council appoints a non-council member as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all Council meetings,

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it, and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

13.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) council member.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the director of operations, director of administration and the executive finance officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The director of operations, director of administration or the executive finance officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the director of operations, director of administration or the executive finance officer, or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee, and

(b) as soon as practicable after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the director of administration, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

14.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually review and recommend to the Council for approval a strategic plan and a multi-year financial plan;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council;

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(e) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;

(f) carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the Committee's duties specified in this Law; and

(g) perform any other duties of the Committee under this Law.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit and Oversight Responsibilities

15. The Committee must carry out the following audit and oversight activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;
- (b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;
- (c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;
- (d) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies and procedures on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the council members, officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (e) monitor financial reporting risks and risk of fraud and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (f) conduct a review of this Law under section 80 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and
- (g) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

16. Subject to paragraph 14(1)(e), the Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council any other matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Director of Administration

17.(1) The Council must appoint a person as director of administration of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the director of administration is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;

- (b) to approve the hiring of any employees on a temporary basis (three months or less);
- (c) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (d) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
- (e) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and risk of fraud;
- (f) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (d) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) to perform any other duties of the director of administration under this Law; and
- (h) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the director of administration's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The Council may assign the performance of any of the director of administration's duties or functions (except the approval of procedures made under this Law)

- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation, and
- (b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the director of administration of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Executive Finance Officer

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as executive finance officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the director of administration, the executive finance officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties, some of which may be delegated to the director of finance as identified in the Council policies and procedures:

- (a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;
- (b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;
- (c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 51, the quarterly financial statements required in section 52 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 53 and 54;

- (e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of the multi-year financial plan;
- (f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;
- (g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;
- (h) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies and procedures respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;
- (i) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;
- (j) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (k) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and risk of fraud and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (l) to perform any other duties of the executive finance officer under this Law; and
- (m) to carry out any other activities specified by the director of administration that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the executive finance officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the director of administration, the executive finance officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the executive finance officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the executive finance officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

19.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the executive finance officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

- (a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;
- (b) to recommend to the executive finance officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the budget respecting local revenues;

- (c) to recommend to the executive finance officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;
- (d) on request, to provide advice to the director of administration, executive finance officer, Finance Advisory Committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;
- (e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and
- (f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the director of administration, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

20.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

- (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
- (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;
- (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
- (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance Advisory Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the director of administration, the executive finance officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the director of administration must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a council member, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the director of administration must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Policy/Procedure for Conflicts of Interest

21.(1) The Council must establish policies and procedures for the avoidance, mitigation and disclosure of actual or potential conflicts of interest by council members, officers, employees, committee members, contractors and agents.

(2) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (1) must provide for the following:

- (a) defining private interests that could result in a conflict of interest;
- (b) keeping records of all disclosures and declarations made relating to actual or potential conflicts of interest;
- (c) specifying restrictions on the acceptance of gifts and benefits that might reasonably be seen to have been offered in order to influence the making of a decision;
- (d) prohibiting any person who has a conflict of interest from attempting to influence a decision or from participating in the making of a decision respecting the matter in which the person has a conflict of interest; and
- (e) specifying how any undisclosed or any alleged but not admitted conflicts of interest of council members are to be addressed.

Conduct of Council members

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a council member must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law, policies, procedures and any applicable standards,
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation,
- (c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances, and
- (d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the applicable policy and procedure made under section 21.

(2) Annually a council member must file with the director of administration a written disclosure of his or her private interests which could result in a conflict of interest.

(3) If a council member believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the council member must disclose the circumstances to the council in writing as soon as practicable.

(4) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a council member has contravened this section, the Council may take any or all of the following actions:

- (a) remove the council member from their assigned administrative responsibilities or portfolio;
- (b) withhold the council member's compensation or honoraria for a period of time;
- (c) record the Council's displeasure in the Council minutes;
- (d) take any other appropriate action authorized under any other First Nation law, code or policy;
- (e) use any legal means available to it to remedy the situation.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation,
- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation, and
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a council member.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards,
- (b) comply with all policies and procedures of the First Nation, and
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any the applicable policy and procedure made under section 21.

(3) If an officer, employee, committee member, contractor or agent believes he or she has a conflict of interest, that person must disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practicable to the director of administration or, in the case of the director of administration, to the chair of the Finance Advisory Committee.

(4) The Council must incorporate the relevant provisions of this section into the following:

- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;
- (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a council member; and
- (d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

- (5) If a person contravenes a provision of this subsection, the following actions may be taken:
- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;
 - (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
 - (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked;
 - (d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked; or
 - (e) the council may use any legal means available to it to remedy the situation.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Strategic Plan

25.(1) The Council must

- (a) approve a strategic plan that sets out the long-term vision for the First Nation and its members; and
- (b) review the strategic plan on a regular, periodic basis and revise it as necessary

(2) The Council must take the strategic plan into account when making financial decisions which will impact members of the First Nation or the First Nation's financial assets.

Multi-year Financial Plan

26.(1) The multi-year financial plan referred to in this section is to be used by the First Nation for the purpose of informing its financial decision-making in a manner that is consistent with and supports the vision of the strategic plan.

(2) The multi-year financial plan must comply with the following:

- (a) have a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
- (b) be based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;
- (c) set out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
- (d) set out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category; and

(e) indicate whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

(3) On or before March 25 of each year, the executive finance officer must prepare and submit to the Finance Advisory Committee for review a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before March 28 of each year, the Finance Advisory Committee must review the draft multi-year financial plan prepared by the executive finance officer and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council for approval.

(5) No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

Annual Budget

27.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

(a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;

(b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and

(c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) On or before March 25 of each year, the executive finance officer must prepare and submit to the Finance Advisory Committee for review a draft annual budget for the next fiscal year.

(3) On or before March 28 of each year, the Finance Advisory Committee must review the draft annual budget prepared by the executive finance officer and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval.

(4) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the budget for the next fiscal year.

(5) On or before June 15 of each year, the executive finance officer must prepare and submit to the Finance Advisory Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(6) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance Advisory Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the budget to the Council for approval.

(7) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

- 28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that
- (a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues,
 - (b) the multi-year financial plan demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced, and
 - (c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Budgets

29.(1) The Council must approve any change to the budget.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(7) and any emergency expenditure referred to in paragraph 35(c), unless there is a substantial and unforeseen change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the First Nations Tax Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31. The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the strategic plan;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan;
- (c) the proposed annual budget, including
 - (i) any budget deficits, and
 - (ii) any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues; and
- (d) extraordinary expenditures.

DIVISION 2 - Revenues and Expenditures

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) The First Nation must establish a separate local revenue account in a financial institution for money from local revenues.

(2) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (1) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Local Revenue Expenditures

33. Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

Budget Approved Expenditures

34. The First Nation may only expend First Nation funds if the expenditure has been approved in the budget in effect at the time of the expenditure.

Required Policies and Procedures

35. The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the following matters:

- (a) effective management and control of all First Nation cash, funds and revenues, including internal controls for financial institution accounts and asset management;
- (b) effective management of all First Nation expenditures, including internal controls for financial institution accounts and the procurement of goods and services;
- (c) expenditures for an emergency purpose which was not anticipated in the budget but which is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law;
- (d) management of advances, holdbacks, deposits and refunds;
- (e) collection and charging of interest;
- (f) writing off and extinguishing debts; and
- (g) fiscal year-end surpluses.

DIVISION 3 - Borrowing

Policies/Procedures for Borrowing

36.(1) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the incurring of debt, granting security, debt management and use of borrowed funds by the First Nation.

(2) The Council may approve the borrowing of money by the First Nation in accordance with the policies and procedures of the First Nation and this Law.

Borrowing Member Requirements

37.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

38. The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in Part V.

Execution of Security Documents

39.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a council member designated by the Council and by either the director of administration or the executive finance officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a council member designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

DIVISION 4 - Risk Management

Management of Business Activity

40.(1) If the First Nation intends to carry out for-profit activities, the Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the limitation or management of the risks associated with the First Nation carrying on those activities.

(2) The Council may approve the First Nation carrying on for-profit activities in accordance with the policies and procedures established by the Council.

Guarantees and Indemnities

41.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the executive finance officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the executive finance officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 76,

(b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party, or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 76, the Council must make policies and procedures respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Investments

42.(1) The First Nation may invest the First Nation's financial assets under the conditions set out in this Law or in another First Nation law.

(2) If the First Nation intends to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council must first approve an investment management strategy.

(3) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the development, approval and periodic review of an investment management strategy for the First Nation's financial assets.

(4) If the First Nation is authorized to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the executive finance officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council, or

(b) in accordance with the investment management strategy approved by the Council under subsection (2).

(5) Despite any other provision in this Law, the First Nation may only invest the following funds in investments specified in paragraph 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

(a) government transfer funds; and

(b) local revenues.

(6) The Council must establish policies and procedures identifying the financial institutions or types of financial institutions in which the First Nation may invest its funds.

Loans

43.(1) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the First Nation lending First Nation's financial assets including actions to ensure effective management and collection of these loans.

(2) The Council may approve the lending of First Nation's financial assets in accordance with the policies and procedures of the First Nation.

Permitted Loans to First Nation Members

44.(1) The First Nation may make a loan to a member of the First Nation if

(a) the loan is made from a program approved by the Council, and

(b) the program provides for universal accessibility, has published terms and conditions, and is transparent.

(2) If the First Nation intends to make loans to members of the First Nation, the Council must approve policies and procedures for the effective management and operation of the program referred to in this section.

(3) The Council may approve the making of loans to members of the First Nation in accordance with the policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2).

Risk Assessment and Management

45.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the director of operations, must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the director of operations must report to the Finance Advisory Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

46.(1) On recommendation of the Finance Advisory Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 45 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a council member or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a council member or an officer.

Risk of Fraud

47. The Council must establish policy and procedures for the identification and assessment of the risk of fraud in the First Nation.

Operational Controls

48. The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 5 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

49. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

50.(1) The executive finance officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the executive finance officer must

(a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation, and

(b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the FMB, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

51.(1) The executive finance officer must prepare monthly financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance Advisory Committee.

(2) The executive finance officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the director of operations and to the director of administration within a reasonable period of time following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

52.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the executive finance officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance Advisory Committee.

(2) The executive finance officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance Advisory Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance Advisory Committee and recommended to Council for approval, and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

53.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in section 54.

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the executive finance officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance Advisory Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include all the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year.

(5) The executive finance officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance Advisory Committee for review within a reasonable period of time following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance Advisory Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within a reasonable period of time following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(7) For purposes of this section, a reasonable period of time means a period of time which will allow the annual financial statements to be audited within the time required in subsection 58(1).

Local Revenues Annual Financial Statements

54.(1) The executive finance officer must prepare, at least once each calendar year, separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with the FMB's Local Revenue Financial Reporting Standards.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the FMB's Local Revenue Financial Reporting Standards.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if FMB's Local Revenue Financial Reporting Standards permit the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

55.(1) The executive finance officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 9;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation; and
- (d) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

(2) The executive finance officer may prepare special purpose reports on the basis of accounting other than GAAP if necessary to comply with any reporting obligations the First Nation has under an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

56.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

- (a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered, or
- (b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance Advisory Committee and must include the content required by the Canadian generally accepted auditing standards.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

- (a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, council members and officers and members, and
- (b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada its respective counterpart in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances, and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

57.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request, and

(b) any council member, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control, and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance Advisory Committee, and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section and to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance Advisory Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance Advisory Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Assurance Requirements

58.(1) The auditor must provide an audit report on the annual financial statements referred to in section 53 not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in section 54 must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both sections 53 and 54 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards.

(4) The auditor must provide an audit report or a review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 55.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

59.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in section 54.

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance Advisory Committee for its review and consideration within a reasonable period of time after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

60.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both sections 53 and 54 may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council,

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,

(ii) the chair of the Finance Advisory Committee, and

(iii) the executive finance officer, and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in section 53 must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

(a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in section 54; or

(b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in section 53 if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

61.(1) No later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must publish an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include

(a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation, and

(b) a progress report on any established objectives and performance measures of the First Nation.

(3) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include or incorporate by reference

(a) the audited annual financial statements referred to in sections 53 and 54 for the previous year, and

(b) any special purpose reports referred to in section 55, including the auditor's report.

(4) The director of administration must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member, and

(b) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(5) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting an accessible process and remedy available to members of the First Nation who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation or access to the audited annual financial statements and special purpose reports incorporated by reference in the annual report.

DIVISION 6 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

62. The Council must establish policies and procedures to ensure that all records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

Record Keeping

63. The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting

(a) the preparation, maintenance, security, storage, access to and disposal of records of the First Nation, and

(b) the confidentiality, control and release of First Nation information that is in the possession of the First Nation, the Council, council members, committee members, employees, contractors or agents of the First Nation.

Account Records

64.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the executive finance officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

65. The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Tangible Capital Assets

Definitions

66. In this Part,

"First Nation tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

“life-cycle management program” means the program of inspection, planning, maintenance, replacement and oversight for First Nation tangible capital assets as described in section 69; and “tangible capital asset project” means the acquisition, construction, repair or replacement of a First Nation tangible capital asset, but does not include routine maintenance.

Council General Duties

67. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that First Nation tangible capital assets are

(a) recorded in an assets register,

(b) adequately safeguarded,

(c) maintained in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part, and

(d) planned, financed, managed and constructed to acceptable community standards.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

68. The Council must establish and manage a tangible capital assets reserve fund to be applied for the purpose of funding expenditures for tangible capital asset projects carried out under this Part.

Life-cycle Management Program

69.(1) The Council must establish a life-cycle management program for First Nation tangible capital assets which includes the following:

(a) the development, maintenance and updating of an assets register for First Nation tangible capital assets;

(b) the regular, periodic inspection of First Nation tangible capital assets;

(c) for routine maintenance of First Nation tangible capital assets, preparation of the following:

(i) a plan for annual scheduling of required maintenance for the next fiscal year;

- (ii) short and long-term forecasting of estimated costs; and
 - (iii) a budget for required annual maintenance for the next fiscal year; and
- (d) for tangible capital asset projects, preparation of the following:
- (i) a plan for annual scheduling of projects for the next fiscal year; and
 - (ii) short and long-term forecasting of estimated costs of projects; and
- (e) the annual review by the Finance Advisory Committee of the proposed scheduling and budgets for routine maintenance and tangible capital asset projects.
- (2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting
- (a) a life-cycle management program for First Nation tangible capital assets, and
 - (b) tangible capital asset projects.

Tangible Capital Asset Projects Management

70.(1) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting procurement, contract and risk management and administration of tangible capital asset projects.

(2) All tangible capital asset projects must be managed in accordance with the policies and procedures referred to in subsection (1).

Policy for Information or Involvement of First Nation Members

71. The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the means by which First Nation members must be informed about or involved in consideration of tangible capital asset projects.

PART VI - Reporting Breaches

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

72.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

- (a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,
- (b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,
- (c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or
- (d) a person has failed to comply with applicable policies and procedures referred to in section 21,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance Advisory Committee.

(2) If a council member becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the council member must report them to the chair of the Finance Advisory Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the director of operations or the chair of the Finance Advisory Committee.

Inquiry into Report

73.(1) If a report is made to the director of operations under subsection 72(3), the director of operations must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance Advisory Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance Advisory Committee under section 72, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance Advisory Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance Advisory Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

74.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the director of operations, the members of the Finance Advisory Committee and the council members to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 72 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 72 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a council member, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The director of operations and the chair of the Finance Advisory Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 72 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 72; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 72.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

75.(1) A council member who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the council member relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

76.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former council member, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

PART VII - Miscellaneous

FMB Standards

77.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the FMB under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable FMB standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a FMB standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the FMB standard.

Delegated Authority for Local Revenues

78.(1) This section applies to the First Nation only if it is

- (a) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or
- (b) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if the FMB gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required, the Council of the First Nation delegates to the FMB

- (a) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and
- (b) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

Delegated Authority for Other Revenues

79.(1) This section applies to the First Nation only if it is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if the FMB gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required, the Council of the First Nation delegates to the FMB

- (a) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and
- (b) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

80.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance Advisory Committee must conduct a review of this Law

- (a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and
- (b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of proposed amendments of this Law.

(3) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the FMB and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(4) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the FMB and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Repeal

81. The Sipekne'katik Financial Administration Law, 2017 (as amended by BCR in 2018) is repealed.

Coming into Force

82. This Law comes into force on the day after it is approved by the FMB under section 9 of the Act.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 12th day of July 2022, at Indian Brook, in the Province of Nova Scotia at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of Seven (7) members of Council was present throughout.
